

Garegin Gevorgyan,

Ph.D., MBA, CFA

Chief Executive Officer

Garegin Gevorgyan joined to the SEF's team in 2009 to restructure operations of the company for robust growth. Prior to joining a Worldvision microfinance operation in Armenia, SEF International Garegin consulted a microfinance intermediary Symbiotics S.A. on bond issuance for Armenian lenders, developed renewable energy financing program at Cascade Credit UCO with EBRD and World Bank, helped set up a financial services group, Cascade Capital Holdings, advised Armenian banks on risk management, developed investment proposals for venture capital firms in NY, USA, and set up risk management systems for international reserves at Central Bank of Armenia.

Garegin teaches Corporate Finance and Risk Management at American University of Armenia. He holds a Ph.D. from Yerevan State University, an MBA from Hofstra University, and is a CFA charterholder. Garegin's core expertise comes from corporate finance and valuation, risk management and investments, strategic management, capital markets and investment management, microfinance, and education.